FALLS 17 STORIES AND STILL LIVES

Marble Worker. Has Complete Realization of What Happens During Long Drop.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
New York, March 3.—John Brunner, a marble worker, twenty-six years old,
fell from the seventeenth floor to the bottom of an elevator shaft in the new Municipal Building on Park Row late Municipal Building on Park Row late this afternoon.

When an ambulance arrived from the Hudson Street Hospital, Brunner was sitting ubright on a bag of empty cement sacks calmly rolling a cigarette. At the hospital it was found that he had suffered fractures of the leg hones and a slight scalp wound. were no internal injuries, and he will across the elevator shaft when he missed his footing. He said he had a complete realization of what was happening during the long drop. Once he reached out and grabbed the elevator cables, momentarily breaking his fall, but he had to let go when the friction horsed his bunds.

MARCHERS FIGHT

two lines the troop charged the crowds Evidently realizing they would be rid-den down, the mobs fought their way back. When they besitated, the caval-ymen, under the orders of their of-feers, did not hesitate. Their borses were driven into the throngs and whirl-ed and wheeled until hooling men and women were forced to retreat. A space as quickly cleared. The parade in itself, in spite of the delays, was a great success. Passing manity, the marchers for the most part kept their temper. They suffered insult and closed their ears to gibs and jeers. Few faltered, although several of the older women were forced to drop out

Ovation for "General" Jones.

The greatest evation was given to General" Resalie Jones, who led her tittle band of "hikers" from New York over rough roads and through snow and rain to march for the "cause." "General" Jones was radiant. She carried a great bunch of American Beauty roses, which made a splash of searlet against the dull brown of her booded tramping gown.

When the women assembled in Continental Hall the first resolution adopt-

UNCLE TRUSTY!

much speed! I'm going to see if I can't get next to Woodrow with this new make-up! I'll try to convince him that I'm Dear Old Uncle Trusty, the Friend of the Common People! Maybe he'll be sorry for this harsh line of talk he's been giving out about me lately! Ah, it's a cold world! There's that poor mysterious gink, for instance! Here he's been waiting out in the snow and sleet all winter, and now look at that deal he's getting! They'll wind up by offering him the mission to Dahomey. Ow! I can almost hear the noise that mallet will make when it lands on Woodrow's head! As for Theodore, he's trying to do the Exile of Elba act. Poor boob! He thinks he'll come back and ascend the throne again! Har! Har!"

Missourl State floats. Mrs. Champ sion was composed largely of eminent Canada and three for India, the vied brigade composed of Washington women garbed in long capes of golden

A huge sign-banner was next in line. It bore the legend, "Women the World, Unite," and was carr the World, Unite," and was carried by two sturdy suffragettes. A banner bearing the words, "Countries Where Women Have Full Suffrage," followed, and introduced a long series of floats symbolic of the nations of the world which have bestowed equal suffrage upon their men and women. Norway came first, "The wagon bearing the phytform, on which stood the figures dressed in native Norway." the figures dressed in native Norwe-glan costume, was driven by a woman, as were all of those which fol-lowed. Finland came next, and then the other extreme of the world. New Zeatand, followed.

When the women assembled in Continental Hall the first resolution adoptical, to be presented to President William of Clark, wife of the Speaker of the House, and Mrs. Borland, wife of the Speaker of the House, and Mrs. Borland, wife of the Speaker of the House, and Mrs. Borland, wife of the Speaker of the House, and Mrs. Borland, wife of the Speaker of the House, and Mrs. Borland, wife of the Speaker of the House, and Mrs. Borland, wife of the Speaker of the House, and Mrs. Borland, wife of the Speaker of the House, and Mrs. Borland, wife of the Speaker of the House, and Mrs. Borland, wife of the Speaker of the House, and Mrs. Borland, wife of the Speaker of the House, and Mrs. Borland, wife of the Speaker of the House, and Mrs. Borland, wife of the Speaker of the House, and Mrs. Borland, wife of the Speaker of the House, and Mrs. Borland, wife of the Speaker of the House, and Mrs. Borland, wife of the Speaker of the House, and Mrs. Borland, wife of the Speaker of the House, and Mrs. Borland, wife of the Speaker of the House, and Mrs. Borland, wife of the Speaker of the Speaker of the Speaker of the Speaker of the House, and Mrs. Borland, wife of the Speaker of the Speaker

The state of lowed. The state of the sum of Qualifies as Executor. Corydon H. Sutton qualified yesterday as executor of the will of Sarah H. Hall. The estate is valued at $2,009.

Had Night Sweats and Stubborn Cold--Now Well

Did you ever have a cold that would not let go, a cough that persisted, that prevented sleep and made waking hours miscrable? Eckman's Alterative is the proper remedy in such cases. Perhaps some simple medicine may be effective where it is only a tickling in the throat, but when your chest is sore and simple remedies don't resource then take Eckman's Alterative. Neglect often leads to more serious trouble; a case in point follows:

718 Cherry St., Phila., Pa.

Zeafand, followed

Australia was depicted by the next

"Countries Where Women Have
the banner which followed the Auspeared on the moving stage which next appeared. Then came Denmark, and lecland. Behind each float marched ten girls in the native costume of the nations represented.

Great Britain Represented.

"Caustralia was depicted by the next conditions that showed I had Consumption. I loss weight rapidly; had a hollow ough, hemorrhages and very severe night sweats. My brother recommended Ecksman's Alterative. In the fall of 190 1@began to take it. At this time I am perfectly well and robust. My appetite is good and my weight has increased from 110 to 140 periods. Not a trace of my old trouble remains. I will gladly express the parits of this medicine to any one."

Great Britain Represented.

Eckman's Alterative is effective in Bronchitts, Asthma, Hay Fever, Thront and Formal Constitution of the conditions that showed I had Consumption. I loss weight rapidly; had a hollow ough, hemorrhages and very severe night sweats. My brother recommended Ecksman's Alterative. In the fall of 190 1@began to take the conditions that showed I had Consumption. I loss weight rapidly; had a hollow ough, hemorrhages and very severe night sweats. My brother recommended Ecksman's Alterative. In the fall of 190 1@began to take the conditions that showed I had Consumption. I loss weight rapidly; had a hollow ough, hemorrhages and very severe night wough, hemorrhages and very severe night wough, hemorrhages and very severe night wough, hemorrhages and very severe night to make the conditions that showed I had Consumption. I loss weight rapidly had a hollow ough, hemorrhages and very severe night the conditions that showed I had Consumption. I loss weight rapidly had a hollow ough, hemorrhages and very severe night the conditions that showed I had Consumption. I loss weight rapidly had a hollow ough, hemorrhages and very severe night to make the conditions that showed I had Consumption. I loss weight rapidly had a hollow ough, hemorrh

MADE FOR ROUSE

Judge Orders Commission of Lunacy to Examine His Mental Condition.

in the treatment we received to quite great abolitons, at the great abolitonist, at the great ab of Wight court convened this morning at 10 o'clock, with Judge White on the bench, for the trial of George P. Rouse,

(Special to The Times-Dispatch 1)
Salisbury, N. C. March 2.—After a mysterious absence of a week, George Goodman, a well known Howan County farmer, returned to his home near Salisbury last night, walking in upon his family. He left in a mysterious manner, and his friends have been searching at various places in this State, also in Idaho and Illinois, where Mr. Goodman formerly lived. His mind has been a blank for a week. He does not remember leaving home, where he has been, nor what he has done. When he came to himself he was in Concord.

Satisbury, N. C., March 2.—An unsuccessful attempt was made late last night to break open and rob the store of Kesler, Kaney & Lomax in Salisbury. The robbers were discovered in the act of breaking in by L. A. Raney, had frightened away when he called for efficers. It was chought the store contained a large sum of money taken in Saturday night.

Attempt to Rob Store.

WILLIAM LOEB, JR., RESIGNS Will Soon Take Up His Duties With Guggenheim Interests,

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
New York, March 3.—William Loeb,
Jr., sent his resignation to Washing-ton to-day as collector of the port of New York, to take effect March 8, on which date his bond of $180,000 expires.

As soon as he is relieved of the collectorship Mr. Loeb will formally assume his new responsibilities as vice-president and managing director of the smelting trust and the other big corations controlled by the Guggen-

ICE CROP HARVESTED

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Winsted, Conn., March 3.—Satan's Kingdom is frozen over. People down there have harvested their ice crop. The ice, ten inches thick, was taken from Roman Pond, and the supply is adequate to meet all demands, provided the summer influx is normal.

Satan's Kingdom is the name bestowed upon the asbestos colony between Collinsville and New Hartford.

Winsted mathematicians are trying to figure out how many gallons of water in Highland Lake are congealed and the total weight of the ice field, which is approximately three miles by one mile in area. The ice is from six to ten inches thick, which makes the problem a difficult one.

next appeared. Then came Denmark, and Iceland. Behind each float marched ten girls in the native costume of the nations represented.

Great Britain Represented.

Great Britain was the subject of the next float, and behind this marched three girls for Wales, five girls for Scotland, five for Ireland, seven for additional evidence—Advertisement.

Seekmark and increased from 110 to 140 pounds. Not a trace of my old trouble remains. I will gladly express the precise of this medicine to any one."

(Signed) M. L. GERHARDT.

Eckmark Alterative is effective in Bromchitte, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit forming drugs, for sale by Tragle Drug Co. and other leading drugssts. Ask for bookiet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for additional evidence—Advertisement.

$20,000 Prize List Causes Keen Interest

Contest Has Just Started--Now Is the Time to Send in Your Nomination---Seventy-Five Prizes to Be Awarded.

The Times-Dispatch has announced a subscription campaign of unparalleled liberality. The prizes are the most numerous and the most valuable that have ever been offered by any newspaper in the State. The first grand prize is a $2,085 Kline touring car. The other seventy-four prizes are in keeping with the grand prizes. The proposition is strictly competitive. The prizes are awarded or votes secured on subscriptions to The Times-Dispatch and by the vote coupons published in The Times-Dispatch. There will be no element of chance or luck, and the result will depend entirely on the effort of each individual contestant.

A SQUARE DEAL FOR ALL.

The records will be kept with the strictest accuracy, impartiality and fairness, and every candidate who enters the race is guaranteed an absolutely square deal. The Times-Dispatch believes in satisfied candidates, and all who enter the contest are going to be satisfied with the treatment accorded them.

Seventy-five prizes are offered by The Times-Dispatch to those persons who secure the largest number of votes in the contest. Votes are obtained by securing paid-in-advance subscribers, either new or renewal, to The Times-Dispatch and by cutting out the vote coupon published in the paper.

OPEN TO VIRGINIA AND NORTH CAROLINA.

Never mind where you live in Virginia or North Carolina, this offer is open to you. If you are in the heart of the city you enjoy the advantage of meeting many people whom you can ask for a subscription to aid you to win. If you live in a less populous place, you have the great advantage of being without rivals in your own locality.

GET SUBSCRIPTIONS ANYWHERE.

One great point to remember is that wherever you reside you may gain subscriptions from any other place, and that any one can enter the contest as a candidate. It is not necessary to be a subscriber to enter as a can-

Having sent in your nomination as a candidate in the contest, the first thing to do is to let every one know that you are in the race. Enlist the aid of your friends and neighbors. Use your telephone. Get their car in some way before any other candidates engage their interest.

VOTES ON OLD AND NEW SUBSCRIPTIONS.

Votes will be given on new subscriptions and on renewals of old subscriptions that are paid in advance. Ask everybody whom you know or whom you can meet.

If you belong to a church society or organization, let your fellow-members know you expect their help. It will be freely given if only you ask before it is promised to some other candidate. Should your father, mother, brother, sister or friends belong to any b or organization, get them to secure the votes and assistance of the

If you are a scholar or teacher, tell your whole class about it, and get up a feeling of class pride in your success.

GET SUBSCRIPTIONS EVERY DAY.

Do not let a day pass without trying to add something to your credit. The steady persistent work is what will make you a winner of a valuable prize. Keeping everlastingly at it insures success. Candidates may secure votes and subscriptions anywhere

It is easier to ask questions than to correct mistakes. Get all the information you need from The Times-Dispatch. Phone Monroe 5.

Introduce as many of your friends as possible to The Times-Dispatch. Get as many renewals as you can from those who are already taking this paper. They will all count in votes to your credit.

HOW ABOUT YOU!

Is your name among the nominations that have been received at the contest department of The Times-Dispatch? To-day is the best time to send in your nomination and secure a re-ceipt book for your subscriptions.

The object of the contest is to add to the already large and constantly growing list of subscribers to The Times-Dispatch. All The Times-Dispatch wants is your aid in getting the subscribers. It can do the reat. With the superior news service of The Times-Dispatch, "once a subscriber, always a subscriber," makes a true saying.

HOW TO WIN.

The way to win is merely a question of getting subscriptions to The Times-Dispatch. For each subscription that you secure you will be entitled to so many votes. You can easily secure votes, and nothing but votes will win you one of the splendid prizes.

Votes will be issued on all paid new subscriptions and renewals of old

Candidates are not restricted to their own district in securing sub-scriptions, but may solicit subscriptions in any State. Candidates in each district do not compete against each other except for the grand capital prizes.

GET AN EARLY START.

Begin while the contest is yet to come, before any one gets a start on you. Of course, you want one of the eleven automobiles. Get into the automobile class. You can do so by a little effort. If you do not own an automobile April 12, it will be because you neglect this opportunity. All you need to start your campaign is a receipt book. Call or send to contest department of The Times-Dispatch for a receipt book and begin

RULES OF THE CONTEST.

Fill out the nomination blank and send same to the Contest Department of The Times-Dispatch. Each contestant is entitled to one nomination coupon, good for 1,000 votes. Contestants may nominate themselves. They do not have to be subscribers to The Times-Dispatch. It costs nothing to enter this contest, and no obligations are involved in doing so. Send in your name or that of a friend or relative to-day.

Any white man or woman, boy or girl, of good repute in the States of Virginia or North Carolina is eligible to enter this great subscription contest. Except that no carrier or newsdealer, anywhere, or salaried employe of The Times-Dispatch in Richmond or member of their immediate families will be allowed to participate in this contest as a candidate.

HOW VOTES ARE SECURED.

Besides votes issued on subscriptions, a daily ballot, good for a certain number of votes, will be issued in The Times-Dispatch, unless otherwise authorized. Each daily ballot printed will be limited and must be in The Times-Dispatch office before the expiration of the date printed thereon.

Candidates are not restricted to getting votes or subscriptions in their own particular districts, but may secure subscriptions in any part of the United States, etc., and, if cash accompanies the order, votes will be issued. Candidates in one district are not competing with candidates in another district, except in the instance of the grand prizes. The division of districts as shown herewith, is to equalize competition so that every candidate may have an equal chance to win

No votes will be issued on subscription payments of less than six Ballots cannot be bought. They can be obtained only by subscribing and prepaying a subscription to The Times-Dispatch or by cutting daily ballots from the paper.

To insure being counted, all daily ballots must be neatly trimmed to a uniform size and sent in flat; do not roll the ballots.

In sending in daily ballots it is unnecessary to fill out more than the t few ballots of each package. Then write on these top ballots the total first few ballots of each package. Then number of votes the package contains. By the filing of votes all contestants must accept and agree to all con

Votes once issued to one candidate cannot be transferred to the credit

Subscriptions will not be taken for a longer period than one year in

No candidate will be allowed to enter the contest as the representative of a lodge, club, church, society, union or organization of any kind, and no organization of any kind will be permitted to nominate a candidate and work as a body for the avowed benefit of the organization. When an affl-daylt is filed and satisfactory proof furnished The Times-Dispatch that any candidate is soliciting subscriptions, either in person, by mail or through friends or fellow-members, with the intention of turning over any prize won to any lodge, club, church society, union or organization of any kind, such candidate will be declared ineligible to any prize whatever, provided such proof is submitted prior to the awarding of the prizes. vided such proof is submitted prior to the awarding of the prizes

In case of a tie, the value of the prizes will be equally divided. The Times-Dispatch will recognize no promises, either written or verbal, made by agents, solicitors or canvassers contrary to the published rules and regulations governing the contest.

The right is reserved to cancel or reject the name of any candidate or to alter these rules and regulations should it be desired to do so.

Any question that may arise will be decided by The Times-Dispatch and its decision will be final.

Any candidate winning a Grand Prize will not be awarded a District For any further information, caft "The Contest Management" of The Times-Dispatch, phone Monroe 1. Any further payment on a subscription already turned in, on which a

Any further payment on a subscription aircady furned in, on which a voting certificate has been issued is an "extension" of that subscription. The contestant turning in the second payment will receive the number of votes constituting the difference between the scheduled number of votes issued on the first payment and the scheduled number of votes allowed on the total of both payments. Contestants are entitled to votes under this rule, on "extensions" of subscriptions, whether the former payment or payments were given to themselves or to other contestants. To insure proper credit on "extensions," make a new subscription blank for the amount of money you are sending and write on the subscription blank the length of the "extension," as "Extended from six months to one year."

Contestants may secure information and data concerning the expiration of subscriptions in their town, and vicinity by applying to the Contest

No votes will be issued on subscription payments made direct to The

Lenten Luncheons

pure, clean, wholesome, sustaining, economical, BURNHAM & MORRILL

FISH FLAKES

Unlike and incomparably better than any other packed fish. Burnham & Morrill Fish Flakes is big, juicy, tender pieces of the best fish, ready cooked-kept absolutely pure and fresh in sanitary parchment lined tins. Try some in Creamed Fish-Fish Hash-Fish Salad-Codfish Balls-Fish Chowder.

SOLD BY GROCERS BURNHAM & MORRILL CO., PORTLAND, MAINE, U. S. A.